Consumers Credit Union Promotes Bonny Johnson and Melissa Rostkowski
Valued CCU Employees enthusiastic about new opportunities

Waukegan, IL, January 6, 2009: Consumers Credit Union (CCU; $510 M. Waukegan, IL) recently introduced Melissa Rostkowski as Branch Manager for the credit union's new location in Volo, Illinois. Bonny Johnson replaces Rostkowski as Branch Manager at the historic credit union's office in Mundelein.

"Consumers Credit Union is delighted to have Bonny Johnson and Melissa Rostkowski as our new Branch Managers," explained Sean M. Rathjen, CCU President. "We are really excited about our new Volo location and are confident Melissa is the right person for that important position. We are extremely pleased to have Bonny Johnson as our newest Branch Manager and look forward to her leadership in Mundelein. Melissa and Bonny are the right people for these positions – especially during this significant time of growth and development for CCU."

Melissa Rostkowski has a strong credit union background, previously working as Manager of Business Development and Service Center Operations for Baxter Credit Union in McHenry County. Rostkowski's responsibilities included building relationships with select employee groups, organizing and participating in community events and managing the credit union's branches. Rostkowski joined CCU in February of 2007, as the Mundelein Branch Manager.

Bonny Johnson began her career with CCU as a Member Service Representative (MSR), where she was responsible for opening new accounts, loans and providing personal service to Members. As an MSR, Johnson enjoyed the Member contact and was eager to learn all she could to help better serve each Member's needs. Johnson was promoted to Counter Service Manager at our Gurnee branch approximately a year ago. Her primary goal: enhance each Member's service experience at the Mundelein Branch.
