Consumers Credit Union Welcomes Gil Chavez, Melissa Rostkowski
Member-owned Credit union introduces new Managers at Mundelein office

Waukegan, IL May 7, 2007: Consumers Credit Union (CCU) recently filled two management positions at the Member-owned credit Union. The credit union welcomed Melissa Rostkowski as its newest Branch Manager, while Gil Chavez was introduced as Director of Mortgage Lending. Both employees are located in the 77-year old credit union's Mundelein office; combined they bring over 23 year of experience to Team CCU.

"Consumers Credit Union is delighted to add Melissa and Gil to our management team," said Sean M. Rathjen, CCU President. "Gil's mortgage background and Melissa's operations expertise will enhance our Member's experience at the Mundelein office. Their backgrounds will also help them create a new level of energy and excitement, making them a perfect fit for our Mundelein office."

Gil Chavez joined CCU as Director of Mortgage Lending in February 2007 after several years as Manager of Mortgage Operations for another credit union. Gil's new position was created to help CCU's Mortgage Department implement a series of changes that will benefit Members, such as faster approvals and enhanced Member services. Gil's responsibilities also include mortgage processing, underwriting, closing and in-house funding. He currently resides in Round Lake Beach with his wife and three children.

Melissa Rostkowski also joined Team CCU in February 2007 as Mundelein Branch Manager. Melissa has a strong credit union background, previously working as Manager of Business Development and Service Center Operations in McHenry County. As Branch Manager, she will oversee all branch operations, with an emphasis on coaching, developing and training staff. Melissa's focus will help enhance each Member's experience at the Mundelein Branch. Melissa is an Antioch resident, along with her husband and two children.
