Will I be able to redeem my existing points through ScoreCard Rewards?

Yes! You will be able to redeem your points through ScoreCard Rewards through 09/16/2021. Or, you can continue to build your points because total points will automatically transition to the new rewards program and can be reviewed and redeemed online after the transition. Your ScoreCard Reward points will convert and reset with a five-year expiration period.

Your converted point balance, plus points earned for purchases completed after 9/16/2021 on your new credit card will appear on your October 2021 CCU VISA credit card statement.

When do my ScoreCard Rewards points expire?

Your Andigo ScoreCard Rewards points will transfer to the new CCU CURewards point program. CURewards points expire after five years on 12/31. Transferred ScoreCard points to CURewards will begin a new expiration period and have a full five years for redemption prior to expiration.

When do my CURewards points expire?

Your CURewards points expire after five years on 12/31.

What are the options and points needed to redeem for flights?

CURewards has an option for Fixed Fares or ticket credit. Examples are below and we encourage you to explore the full site once you receive your new card.

► Fixed Fare: This option offers a “fixed” pricing to the destinations. Fixed Fares require a 21-day advance purchase and Saturday night stay. Examples of Fixed Fare points required:

- U.S. 48 States = 25,000 points
- Europe = 79,000 points
- Caribbean = 50,000 points
- Mexico = 50,000 points

Will my current ScoreCard Rewards points transfer to the new CCU credit card?

Yes! Your unredeemed points will transfer to the CCU credit card Rewards program, CURewards. You will immediately start to earn CURewards points on all purchases with your new credit card. You will begin earning 3-2-1 points as follows:

- Earn 3 X the points per dollar in convenience store and grocery store purchases (up to a maximum of $6,000 in annual spending for these purchases.) This equates to a maximum annual points accrual of 18,000 points in these categories.
- Earn 2 X the points for “Gas” purchases.
- Earn 1 X the points for all other purchases.

► Ticket Credit: This option allows you to fly anywhere, anytime – with no restrictions. Examples of Ticket Credits:

- $325 credit for 25,000 points
- $525 credit for 40,000 points
- $750 credit for 57,000 points

Will I be able to use my CCU credit card outside of the United States?

Yes! Your CCU credit card is accepted anywhere you see the VISA logo. A fee will be assessed for foreign transactions at 1.00% of each multiple currency transaction in U.S. dollars, or .80% of each single currency transaction in U.S. dollars. Transactions completed by merchants outside of the United States are considered foreign transactions, regardless of whether you are located inside or outside the United States at the time of the transaction.

CCU's fraud systems protect against credit transactions done in Iran, Cuba, Burma/Myanmar, and Libya.

Do I need to notify the credit union if I will be traveling?

Yes, it is always best to notify us when you will be traveling. For convenience, you can add travel notes within online or mobile banking.

Can I temporarily disable or block my credit card?

Yes! You can access and manage your card in online and mobile banking under “Card Management”.

Will my credit card work with a mobile wallet?

Yes! Simply add your new card to your mobile device to make fast, easy and safe transactions, almost anywhere you shop. Cards can be used with Apple Pay, Google Pay, and Samsung Pay.

Can I personalize my CCU credit card?

Yes! There is a Design Your Own Card (DYOC) option available. Customize your new credit card by uploading a picture of your own or browse and choose through a selection of available designs. You can access the DYOC menu option available within online and mobile banking.

Can I set up card alerts?

Yes! You can access and manage card alerts through online and mobile banking.

What do I do if I see unauthorized charges on my credit card?

Call the number on the back of your card.

How will the transition of my card impact my credit report?

Your card will appear on your credit report as a “transfer” from Andigo, and not as a new account. This way, the length of your credit history, which can have a score impact, will not be affected.

Will the automatic, recurring payments I have set up on my Andigo credit card continue after Transition Weekend?

No, you will need to set up new automatic, recurring payments for your new CCU credit card. This can easily be accomplished after your new card is activated.

Recurring Payments:

- ▶ From another financial institution = you can fill out the Recurring Payment Form in online banking or from the mobile app, or contact CCU and a representative is happy to assist
- ▶ From a CCU account you can set up recurring transfers in CCU online banking or the mobile app

VISA
P.O. Box 37603
Philadelphia, PA 19101-0603

I use bill payment to pay my Andigo credit card, can I still use this to make my CCU credit card payments?

We recommend using one of the easy options listed below to make payments to your credit card.

One-Time Payments:

- ▶ Pay with a debit card or routing & account number = CCU eXpress Pay is available in CCU online banking and the mobile app (some fees may apply)
- ▶ Pay by transfer from a CCU account in online banking or the mobile app

Recurring Payments:

- ▶ From another financial institution = you can fill out the Recurring Payment Form in online banking or from the mobile app, or contact CCU and a representative is happy to assist
- ▶ From a CCU account you can set up recurring transfers in online banking or the mobile app

Is CCU waiving late fees between 9/17/21-11/19/21 due to this transition?

Yes! To help ease the transition, we will be waiving late fees on credit cards included in this transition from 9/17/2021 to 11/19/2021. Late fees will apply and be charged if applicable after 11/19/2021.

Will I be subject to a foreign transaction Fee?

Yes, but the fee is lower on your new CCU credit card. A fee will be assessed for foreign transactions at 1.00% of each multiple currency transaction in U.S. dollars, or .80% of each single currency transaction in U.S. dollars. Transactions completed by merchants outside of the United States are considered foreign transactions, regardless of whether you are located inside or outside the United States at the time of the transaction.

Will I be able to access my new CCU VISA information online?

Yes, on 09/19/21 you may enroll your newly-received CCU credit card within CCU's online banking. By enrolling in online banking you have access to great new features to aid in managing your credit card:

- Utilize card controls to lock/unlock your card or report lost/stolen cards
- Set up card alerts to receive email or text alerts on transactions
- Customize automated fraud alerts with your communication preference
- Add and manage travel alerts
- Utilize CardSwap to update merchant websites with your credit card information for easy purchases at checkout
- Enroll and view eStatements
- Make one-time or set up recurring payments
- Customize your card with Design Your Own Card (DYOC)

Will I need to update my account number for recurring charges with merchants?

Yes, you will need to contact merchants and provide them with your new credit card account information. CCU offers CardSwap, a service within online banking that makes this easy to do with a couple clicks. Just log in and select "CardSwap" under the "Services" menu.
